This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at `http://books.google.com/`

FIFTH WEEK.

Monday.

LEARN—

Shepherd of Israel, from above
Thy feeble flock behold,
And let us never lose Thy love,
Nor wander from Thy fold.

Thou wilt not cast Thy lambs away;
Thy hand is ever near,
To guide them lest they go astray,
And keep them safe from fear.

We want Thy help, for we are frail;
Thy light, for we are blind;
Let grace o'er all our doubts prevail
To prove that Thou art kind.

Teach us the things we ought to know,
And may we find them true;
And still in stature as we grow,
Increase in wisdom too.

Tuesday.

LEARN—

Jerusalem, my happy home;
Name ever dear to me;
When shall my labours have an end,
In joy, and peace, and thee?
When shall these eyes thy heaven-built walls,
And gates of pearl behold;
Thy bulwarks with salvation strong,
And streets of shining gold?

Apostles, Martyrs, Prophets, there
Around my Saviour stand;
And all I love in Christ below
Will join the glorious band.
Jerusalem, my happy home,
My soul still pants for thee,
Then shall my labours have an end,
When I thy joys shall see.

'Tis a pleasant thing to see
Brethren in the Lord agree;
Children of a God of love
Live as they shall live above;
Acting each a Christian part,
One in life, and one in heart.

Gently as the dews distil,
Down on Zion's holy hill;
Dropping gladness where they fall,
Brightening and refreshing all;
Such is Christian union, shed
Through t'e members from the Head.

Where divine affection lives,
There the Lord His blessing gives;
There His will on earth is done;
There His heaven is half begun;
Lord, our great example prove,
Teach us all like Thee to love.

FORTY-FIFTH WEEK.

Monday. LEARN—

With glory clad, with strength arrayed,
The Lord that o'er all nature reigns,
The world's foundations strongly laid,
And the vast fabric still sustains.

How sure established is Thy throne,
Which shall no change or period see!
For Thou, O Lord, and Thou alone,
Art king from all eternity!

The floods, O Lord, lift up their voice,
And toss their troubled waves on high;
But God above can still their noise,
And make the angry sea comply.

Thy promise, Lord, is ever sure:
And they that in Thy house would dwell,
That happy station to secure,
Must still in holiness excel.
